

SOCIALISTS MUST BE CITIZENS.

C. I. F. Recognizes that Votes Are What Govern This Land.

Boss Vogt, the editor of the German organ of the Socialist Labor party, stirred up matters at the meeting of the Central Labor Federation at East Fourth street yesterday by urging all the hand to become American citizens without delay.

"None-fourth of the members of some of the most progressive organizations are citizens," he said. "How can political action be under such conditions? The labor movement should force its members to become American citizens. The men who refuse to have their papers should be looked upon as political scabs." (Applause.) With this end in view a census should be taken in all unions to show how many members have not taken their nationalization papers. In 1890 only 1,000 Russians were naturalized, 1,100 in 1891, and 1,144 in 1892, and this, though showing an increase, is only a small proportion of the Russians who are members of trades unions."

The matter was referred to the General Executive Board, with instructions to draft a resolution to be sent to the various unions, requesting them to take the census.

It was resolved that a national census should be taken in every organization by which every member is associated with the Central Labor Federation, and that the following declaration:

"The cause is exposed to the existing political parties the working class must have independent political organization, labor's own,"

A resolution was passed congratulating the people of Belgium on having a certain example secured in their suffrage.

The committee invited to send a copy of the resolution to Jean Volders, Secretary of the Miners' Union in Belgium, who is supposed to have been a leader in the agitation for unionization.

The committee on the May Day demonstration reported that the United Hebrew trades will start dancing squares with bands and banners on Saturday evening. There will be two other bands to add to the music, and the English, French and German speakers will have two rows of speakers on the Broadways, one side for German speakers, L. Miller will speak at the corner of Fourth avenue trucked.

Secretary Fenney began to read the minutes at the meeting of the Central Labor Federation, and if his voice was coming from some speaker. He read the roll call indicating that the name of one organization was omitted, the English. There was no room on the Broadways for speakers and on the Fourth avenue for German speakers. L. Miller will speak at the corner of Fourth avenue trucked.
